SECTION 7  Allowances

Article II 7.01  Entitlement to Allowances

a) A married beneficiary of a retirement or disability pension shall be entitled to a family allowance.

b) A divorced beneficiary of a retirement or disability pension shall be entitled to a family allowance only if he is in receipt of a child allowance.

c) A beneficiary of a retirement or disability pension shall be entitled to an allowance for each dependent child.

d) Notwithstanding the above, family and child allowances shall not be payable under the circumstances defined in Articles II 5.08, II 5.09 and II 6.09 respectively.

Article II 7.02  Amount of Fixed Sum and Allowances

a) The allowances provided for in Section 7 of the Rules of the Fund are calculated in accordance with the bases for calculation of the retirement pension specified in Article II 2.02.

b) The fixed sum and allowances provided for in Annex B of the Rules of the Fund correspond to the applicable maximum period of membership specified in Article II 2.02 of the Rules of the Fund. Where membership has been for less than the applicable maximum period when payment of the pension begins, these amounts are reduced proportionately.

Article II 7.03  Non-concurrence of Benefits

a) A beneficiary shall declare the amount of any payment and allowances received by him and/or his spouse with respect to his family situation or to his children from sources other than the Fund. Depending on their nature, they shall be deducted from the corresponding benefits payable under the present Rules.

b) In the case of spouses who both are beneficiaries of a pension, family and children's allowances for which they may be eligible, shall be payable only to the spouse whose entitlement results in the higher of the two amounts.
